DECLARATION OF P.T.A

Don Bosco School (Run by Bombay Salesian Society) is of non-proprietary Character

Don Bosco School conducts a minimum of three parent teacher meetings during the academic year. The parents can meet the Principal, counselor and the teaching staff, so there is a good rapport built between management / staff and the parents. During a parent teacher meeting, every parent is given an opportunity to discuss the progress both academic and the holistic development of their ward. Besides the scheduled teacher meeting the parents are also allowed to meet with the principal and staff with prior appointment. As per the norms of Ministry of Education, there is no official PTA in view of the above mentioned points.

We hereby declare that the information given above is true and complete to the best of our knowledge and belief and nothing has been concealed therein.
